

Coaching to Excellence

Applying SSAT insight to the coaching process

Coaching to Excellence gives sales managers the knowledge and tools they need to improve overall sales effectiveness and productivity by utilizing the insight provided by PI Worldwide's Selling Skills Assessment Tool (SSAT). SSAT provides a detailed, quantifiable look at your sales people's strengths, skills and specific areas that need improvement.

Coaching is more than a job responsibility. It's up to the sales manager to help the team enhance their sales skills, and motivate them to meet or exceed their sales goals. But it's not easy. Helping people learn new ways of doing things involves changing existing behavioral habits and establishing new ones.

Coaching to Excellence gives sales managers the knowledge they need to leverage the data from SSAT and the communication skills necessary to coach their team for long-term sales success.

Highlights of the full-day training program include learning how to:

- Implement a concrete, proven four-step coaching model that brings together all aspects of coaching, from planning to measurement, to improved results
- Improve the ability to accurately evaluate the sales rep's situation
- Use data from the Selling Skills Assessment Tool to understand exactly what's needed to drive performance
- Understand the coaching process and developing essential coaching skills
- Master the coaching skills in a learning lab that emphasizes practice, practice and more practice
